SOUTHERN AFRICA

Editorial

Dear readers,

Another year has gone by quickly, and it has been a busy one for South Africa with its current drought and the challenges that are directly connected to it. Let's hope that we are better prepared in 2019. In this regard, I wish you a good and water-wise year.

Happy reading,

SWISS SAILBOAT "FLEUR DE PASSION" STOPS IN CAPE TOWN

Arriving from Durban in mid-December 2018, the 33m-long ketch docked at V&A Waterfront in January 2019 as part of "The Ocean Mapping Expedition", a 4-year journey around the world (2015-2019) in the wake of Magellan combining science, education and culture.

Lucky those who took advantage of the opportunity to feel the thrill of adventure! The traditional sailing boat "Fleur de Passion" who had set sail from Seville in April 2015 arrived in Cape Town in mid-December. This two-mast and currently biggest sailboat under Swiss flag is above all the flag-ship of "The Ocean Mapping Expedition", a four-year journey around the world in the wake of the famous Portuguese navigator, some 500 years after the first ever circumnavigation. Led by Geneva-based non-profit Fondation Pacifique with the support of the Canton of Geneva, the project combines the oceans and raise awareness of the related sustainable development issues.

At the helm, three different crews of experienced sailors rotate every two months each to operate the programs on micro-plastic and noise pollution as well as on greenhouse gases at the surface of the oceans, this latter program in partnership with the University of Geneva.

Among the people who also take part in the adventure are teenagers from the “Youth At Seas” socio-educational program, cartoonists and illustrators as well as passengers eager to share the experience of life at sea on a «working boat» where everyone is a crew member.

With the support of the Embassy of Switzerland in South Africa, the General Consulate in Cape Town and Pro Helvetia, “Fleur de Passion” stopover in V&A Waterfront from 3rd to 24th January 2019 offered a wide range of occasions to share the spirit and achievements of this unique expedition. The must was definitely guided tours on board to discover how a former WWII German Navy minesweeper was turned into a sailboat in the mid-70's and has since then been dedicated to peaceful activities for the common good; and the “Our Spice Islands” exhibition displaying the rich and colorful drawings, sketches or cartoons produced by the - mainly Swiss but including a South African - artists who embarked “in residence” from Seville to Cape Town.

THE SWISS CONNECTED AGAIN

Swiss Connection Cape Town held another networking event on 26 November at Erinvale Hotel in Somerset West where Dr. Ronnie van der Merwe presented an interesting talk and gave a better understanding of Mediclinic and their involvement with the Hirslanden hospital group.

We are grateful to Urs Kern, the GM and his team of the Erinvale Hotel for hosting us, for the generous, sumptuous Curry buffet and the tasty desserts including Christmas Cookies! For those who had time, we were even taken on a tour of the hotel. The Erinvale Hotel is a great destination to enjoy a nice lunch under the Oak trees or to be treated at their Spa.

Yves Musfeld of Onderkloof sponsored the wine tasting. Another big thank you goes to our Consul General Andreas Maager for organising the speaker and his support, as well as Joel and Anja for the preparation of this event. The photos will be uploaded onto our website, which is still under construction, but you can see what we are working on:

LIFE CERTIFICATE FOR PENSION BENEFITS

Once a year, all recipients of pension benefits receive a “Life Certificate” form directly from the Swiss Compensation Office in Geneva (SCO), which must be filled in to confirm that they are still alive and to also confirm that their marital status is up-to-date.

The form must also be authenticated in South Africa either by a Swiss representation abroad, Home Affairs, a Commissioner's of Oath (police station) or by the Swiss representative in the other countries of Southern Africa. You will be requested to present a valid identity document (passport or identity card). You should receive the form for the first time, one year after you become eligible for a pension.

To ensure uninterrupted payment of your pension, the form must be sent within 90 days to the Swiss Compensation Office in Geneva. If not received within the given deadline, payment of your pension benefit will be stopped automatically.

You are also required to notify the SCO immediately of any changes to your personal circumstances likely to result in your pension amount being revised as well as any changes in your home or payment address.

Should you not receive the "Life Certificate" form in time, you can download a blank form from the website of the Regional Consular Center for Southern Africa and the Consulate General in Cape Town.

You would need to fill in the blank form with all the required details and have it authenticated the usual way.

ASO

Another eventful year has passed and ASO had held a very successful congress in Visp, located in the upper (German speaking) part of the Valais. On a sad note we say good by to Sarah Mastantuoni, one of the two directrices of ASO. Ariane Rustichelli will from now on lead the directorate ASO on her own.

Yet another successful event was held in Johannesburg in cooperation with the Swiss Clubs JHB and PTA in September for members of the larger Swiss Community, concentrating on options available to conduct banking and/or investments. This event was held and sponsored by Levantine Corp. from Cape Town. Our thanks go to Laurent Joly and Frédéric Mariette for their efforts in this regard.

The 2019 ASO Congress will be held in Montreux from 16 to 18 August.

Together with my ASR colleague Marcie Bischof, we wish all Swiss Compatriots in Southern Africa a good start in 2019!

Hans-Georg Bosch

ASR delegate for Southern Africa ASR
